

Sotheby's

ART OF IMPERIAL INDIA

09 OCTOBER 2013 | 2:00 PM BST | LONDON

209

A FALCONER IN EUROPEAN COSTUME, BUNDI OR KOTAH, MID-18TH CENTURY

gouache with gold on paper, narrow borders of buff paper, inscription on reverse in nagari mentioning 'farangi' painting: 22.9 by 15.7cm.

leaf: 24.8 by 17.5cm.

Estimate 8,000 — 10,000

GBP ▼

LOT SOLD. 10,000 GBP
(Hammer Price with Buyer's Premium)

Provenance

Sotheby's New York, 2 June 1992, lot 333

Catalogue Note

The depiction of 'Farangis' (Europeans) in an almost lampoonish manner was popular in Rajasthani painting in the eighteenth century, especially at Bundi, Kotah and Mewar.

209A FALCONER IN EUROPEAN COSTUME, BUNDI OR KOTAH, MID-18TH CENTURY

Estimate 8,000 – 10,000

GBP

© 2013 Sotheby's

LOT SOLD 0,000 GBP(Hammer Price with Buyer's Premium)

+

