male falconer figure with bird of prey:

mounted on decorative bases:

of a german origin

original

female huntress figurine in wonderful dress

porcelain figurines

This is a superb pair of porcelain male falconer figure with the bird of prey, female huntress figurine of which:

during our research: we have been informed they certainly date from the 19th century:

date about c1880s.

Unmarked but of a German origin.

Porcelain, ceramic.

Male figure in wonderful dress attire wearing a tricorn hat.

Portrayed as a falconer flying a bird of prey.

Female huntress figurine in the wonderful dress attire.

Portrayal of the standing male and female figurines.

Intricate overall detailing.

Mounted onto the decorative bases.

Each has an overall height of about 5.75 & 4.75inches.

Base sizes of about 2.75 x 2inches.

Condition: Considering the age: the overall condition is excellent and both are not subject to:

any major blemishes except:

the tip of the rifle is chipped.

All as per pictures.

Besides being a very collectable pair of 19th century German male & female porcelain figurines, in the wonderful dress attire, of a falconer & huntress, mounted onto the decorative bases, c1880s, both will look fabulous displayed.
