

Caption

A falcon swoops down on its prey in a swift 200 mile an hour dive. Enthusiasts claim that the sight of these majestic birds in full stoop after a fast shifting crow is a never-to-be-forgotten thrill.

Date

January 1, 1959

Accession Number

LAC-NFB90257

Materials

Black and white negative

Photographer

[unattributed]

Photostory #234: Revive Ancient Sport of Kings: Saskatchewan's Falconry Club

Main Text

The prairie falcon is the bird which members of the Saskatchewan association will concentrate upon. It nests