A perfect reproduction of a Great Moravian target with a falconer on horseback. The original find comes from the locality of Staré Město. This jewel from grave XV is considered a masterpiece of Great Moravian toretics.

The rider carries a bird of prey on his left hand. The target was found in 1949 during archaeological research. The original is stored in the archaeological department of the Moravian Museum in Brno.

- IX. century
- Dimensions: 3.8 cm
- Material: zinc alloy
- Czech production
